

Assyrian Church of the East | Family Tribunal

Marriage Information

If you wish to book a marriage service, you will need to contact the parish priest where you wish to have the service. Before you speak with the parish priest, please ensure you:

1. Contact our office at St Hurmizd's Cathedral (02 9610 8680) anytime between Monday to Saturday from 9am-1pm to make sure your church membership status is active.
  - a. Note: a service fee of $500 applies to non-Church members. This must be paid before booking the church.
  - b. Alternatively, you may register as a new family in the Church's membership database.
2. Have obtained a Single Status Certificate from the Family Tribunal.
3. Once you are up to date with your church membership (or paid the booking fee for non-Church members) and have obtained a Single Status Certificate, you may contact the parish priest where you wish to book your marriage service.
4. The Family Tribunal will contact you prior to your marriage date to organize marriage classes and to complete the Marriage Registry's paperwork.
